Take the Lead 2

ORGANISATIONAL LEADERS

"A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way." - John C. Maxwell

'Take the Lead 2' is the second program in our leadership pathways program and is designed to build leaders skills to meet challenges and support teams to deliver on their goals.

Successful teams and organisations depend upon high performing leaders that can influence, advocate and persuade in order to meet the organisational business outcomes. For some people leading others and functions comes easy, however for most it requires hard work.

Leaders today have less time and more information than ever before. Leaders who transition from doing the work themselves to achieving results through others have to balance technical expertise and people management. Great leaders manage and develop their people and guide them through challenging situations. They truly are leaders of change.

The focus of this program is on building inclusive team environments, applying the principles of decisive leadership, influencing and persuading others, communicating effectively, having courageous conversations, managing and leading change.

Program Outcomes

- ✓ Communicate effectively as a leader
- ✓ Understand how leaders can influence and persuade others
- ✓ Create an inclusive work environment
